

Ilmar Gavilán

Having taught for six years at Juilliard School's Music Advancement Program, Mr. Gavilán is currently engaged in a visiting Residency at The Royal College of Music in London as first violinist of the Harlem Quartet.

As a soloist, Mr. Gavilán has performed concertos with the Atlanta, New Jersey, Baltimore, Detroit, Milwaukee Symphonies. Mr. Gavilan's collaboration with jazz legends Chick Corea and Gary Burton earned him a Grammy for the recording of the "Hot House" album as a member of the Harlem Quartet.

An avid chamber musician, Mr. Gavilan has performed with Itzhak Perlman, Arnold Steinhardt, Ida Kavafian, Carter Brey, Paul Katz, Fred Sherry, Anthony McGill, and Misha Dichter. Mr. Gavilan has participated in numerous chamber music festivals including Tanglewood, Ravinia and Angel Fire. Mr. Gavilan's U.S. Solo recording "Por el mar" features music composed by his father Guido Lopez-Gavilan including a violin concerto dedicated to him.

Ilmar and his brother Aldo, a world-class pianist and composer, were presented by Carnegie Hall in the featured documentary "Los Hermanos/The Bothers"

<http://www.patchworkfilms.net/the-brothers>.